Faith Talk:

Discuss in your household or small group:

- Philip looked for Nathanael and brought him to Jesus. Who has brought you to Jesus?
- What does Jesus' call to "follow me" mean to you?
- What does it mean for you that Jesus is the Son of God?

Devotional Practices:

Psalm 139:13-16 tells how each of us was specially and uniquely created by God and of his intimate love and concern for each of us. Read these verses in your home devotional time this week.

You created the deepest parts of my being. You put me together inside my mother's body. How you made me is amazing and wonderful. I praise you for that. What you have done is wonderful. I know that very well. None of my bones was hidden from you when you made me inside my mother's body. That place was as dark as the deepest parts of the earth. When you were putting me together there, your eyes saw my body even before it was formed. You planned how many days I would live. You wrote down the number of them in your book before I had lived through even one of them.

Share stories of where and when you were born. If possible, look at baby pictures of household members. Say prayers of thanks to God for each other.

Service:

The weeks following Christmas are a good time to review the material possessions we have. Have each household member choose at least one item (of good working order!) they no longer use or could do without. Take these to a local charity shop. Say a prayer of thanks to God for the many ways he provides for us.

Rituals and Traditions:

Make up a "Fun Box" that can help your household become more intentional about spending quality time together. The Fun Box will contain slips of paper listing activity ideas for the household. It can be plain or decorated, but with a lid of some sort. Working together as a household, make up a list of fun, inexpensive activities you can do together, and write each one down on a different slip of paper (e.g. going for a walk, playing a game, singing favourite songs, making biscuits, reading a favourite book together). When you feel the need for some household time, have a household member draw out a slip of paper and then work on making the activity happen!
